This Privacy Notice explains how personal data ("Data") of representatives, managers, guarantors, beneficial owners, shareholders (natural persons only) and successors of our Client ("Data Subjects") is handled by the Controller ("we", "us", "our", or the "Company") listed in section 7 of this Privacy Notice in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. We are committed to protecting and respecting Data Subject's privacy.

1. HOW WE OBTAIN DATA

We may collect, process and store some Data, such as:

- a. Identification and Contact Data
- b. Professional Data
- c. Financial Account Data
- d. Credit Data
- d. Economic, Property, Financial, Insurance Data

Data will be provided to us by the Data Subjects, and in some cases, by the representatives granted by the power of attorney to act for the Data Subjects, and we may collect Data directly from a third party or from public records. We protect Data obtained from such third parties according to the practices described in this privacy notice.

2. HOW WE USE DATA

Data collected may be processed by us for the following purposes:

- i. perform the contracts and/or service agreement in place or to be entered into;
- ii. fulfill the activities requested by the applicable laws and regulations (such as anti-money laundering checks);
- iii. maintain and improve our relationship with our Client, as well as deliver and improve the quality of our products and services;
- iv. protect our interests in case of disputes or complaints;
- v. fulfill the activities of the assignment of receivables in the course of factoring to Iveco Group companies as well as to external financial institutions;
- vi. fulfill the activities of the transfer of receivables as required for funding purposes by external financial institutions.

Data is collected and processed on the basis of our explicit and legitimate interest for the processing under points (iii) and (iv), due to the legal obligations for the processing under point (ii) and due to the execution of contractual obligations for the processing under points (i), (v) and (vi).

Regarding point (v), if a credit is assigned (factoring) to another company of Iveco Group, the Controller shares and communicates the Data to such company, which will act as autonomous controller for all the activities related to the factoring transaction. The list of companies of Iveco Group to which credits can be assigned are listed in Annex A to this Privacy Notice. Those companies may have a Data Protection Officer, please refer to Annex A for details.

Data may be processed electronically within IT systems, and manually, in paper form. Data will be processed and stored for its whole lifecycle, ensuring security and confidentiality of the same in compliance with principles of fairness, lawfulness and transparency and in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws and regulations.

3. CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE DATA

Submitting Data is never mandatory. However, not providing Data that is necessary to meet the purposes described in this Privacy Notice may prevent the Client from fulfilling an agreement with us, or may prevent us from complying with legal obligations.

4. HOW WE SHARE YOUR DATA

We are part of the Iveco Group, a global leader in the capital goods sector. Data may be shared and communicated to our subsidiaries and affiliates of the Iveco Group, authorized external parties, service providers, business partners, external factors including financial institutions, based in and outside the European Union, which are under specific contractual obligation and may use it solely for the fulfillment of the purposes listed above.

Data may be communicated to third parties, including but not limited to Iveco Group companies, to comply with contractual and/or legal obligations, to operate and maintain our and the Iveco Group security, protect our and the Iveco Group rights or property, to respond to order of Public Authorities, or to exercise our rights before judicial authorities.

5. HOW WE TRANSFER YOUR DATA TO THIRD COUNTRIES

In order to perform Data processing activities as detailed above, we may transfer Data in countries outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), including storing such Data in digital or physical databases managed by entities acting on our behalf. Database management and Data processing are limited to the purposes of the processing and are carried out according to applicable data protection laws and regulations.

In case Data are transferred outside of the EEA, the Company will use any appropriate contractual measures to guarantee adequate protection of the Data, including – among others – agreements based on Standard Data Protection Clauses adopted by the EU Commission applicable to the transfer of personal data outside the EEA.

6. RETAINING PERSONAL DATA

We maintain Data in our systems and archives for as long as necessary to pursue the purposes described in this Privacy Notice taking into account, when applicable, legal and contractual requirements.

When Data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it is processed, Data is deleted or kept in a form which does not permit the identification of data subjects, provided that we are not legally required or permitted to hold such Data. We may continue to store Data for a longer period, as may be necessary to protect our interests related to potential liability connected to the provision of the services or products or the processing of Data.

8. RIGHTS REGARDING DATA

Data subjects may exercise their rights as defined by applicable laws and regulations, among these:

- Right of access: right to obtain from the Controller a confirmation as to whether or not Data is being processed, and, if so, to demand to gain access to this Data.
- Right of rectification: right to obtain from the Controller the rectification of Data considered inaccurate and to have incomplete information being completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.
- Right to erasure: right to obtain from the Controller the erasure of Data without undue delay, where the request is made in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations.
- Right to object to data processing: right to object at any time to the processing of Data, unless the Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override this right.
- Right to limit the data processing: right to obtain from the Controller a limitation on the processing activities when the accuracy and the precision of Data is disputed, and for the time necessary for the Controller to verify the accuracy of Data.
- Right to data portability: right to receive the Data provided to the Controller in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. Data subjects also have the right to transmit this Data to another data controller without hindrance from the Controller, especially following these conditions: the processing is based on consent or on a contract and the processing is carried out by automated means.
- Right to make a complaint: without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial dispute, if Data subjects believe the data processing has been carried out illicitly or not compliant with applicable laws and regulations, they have the right to raise a complaint with the Supervisory Authority of the State in which they reside or work habitually, or of the State where any breach has occurred.

Data subjects can exercise the abovementioned rights by contacting us as follows:

- Sending an email or a letter to Controller's Data Protection Officer at the address indicated in section 7 of this Privacy Notice;
- Filling the online form you can find here: http://www.ivecogroup.com/policies_and_guidelines/privacy_request_form;
- Writing an email to privacy-compliance@ivecogroup.com;
- Sending a letter to the Controller at the address indicated in the section 7 of this Privacy Notice, specifying "for the attention of Privacy Compliance".

Should Data subjects send us a request, we may need to obtain additional personal information from them to verify their identity and contact them, if necessary. This information, together with other Data we already withhold, will then be processed to meet the request, as required by applicable law. Where necessary, certain information may be transferred to other companies within or outside the Iveco Group that act as data processors of your Data, in order to meet the request. Data will be processed for the necessary amount of time to evaluate and handle the request, after which Data will be archived for a suitable time period allowing us to demonstrate that the request has been handled correctly and timely.

9. UPDATES TO THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

This Privacy Notice was updated in May 2022. We reserve the right to amend or update the Privacy Notice from time to time to reflect changing legal requirements or our processing activities.
